

ALL SAINTS'

EPISCOPAL CHURCH & PRESCHOOL

Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany
February 9, 2020

Aloha!

Welcome to All Saints' Episcopal Church and Preschool on the beautiful Garden Island of Kaua'i.

All Saints' vision is to be a gathering place for the people of Kaua'i—a center for worship, education, outreach, and the arts.

The Episcopal Church in Hawai'i was Chartered in 1862 under the laws of the Kingdom of Hawai'i after King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma invited the Church of England to Hawai'i. The King and Queen supported the Church's presence throughout the islands with gifts of land, which includes the land that All Saints' calls home.

As a Church in the Episcopal Diocese of Hawai'i, All Saints' is a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion that joins together over 70 million members in 163 countries. All Saints' was founded as Kaua'i's first mission of the Episcopal Church in 1924 at Kealia, four miles north of Kapa'a. The mission moved to its present campus in 1925.

For our Visitors: Whether you are visiting All Saints' from across the globe or down the street, we welcome you and invite you to fully participate in this worship service. Please take a moment to fill out a visitor card located in the pews—ushers have additional copies. The visitor cards let us know who you are and how we can support you in your spiritual journey. In keeping with Hawaiian tradition, as an honored guest, you should have received a lei from an usher. If not, please identify yourself as a visitor to an usher and they will properly welcome you to All Saints'.

Worshipping with Us: The entire order of the service is contained in this service booklet. We have large-print service booklets available—please see an usher. You are invited to participate fully in the service. During the distribution of Communion, you are welcomed to receive the Sacrament or a blessing from the priest. Additional information about Communion is contained in the Communion section of this service booklet. If you have any questions or concerns during the service, please do not hesitate to speak to an usher or your fellow congregants.

Keiki (Children) in Worship: God blessed keiki with the ability to wiggle. The joyous sounds, movements, and curiosity of keiki are gifts from God. Please do not feel you have to subdue those joys in God's house. We want God's keiki to be comfortable. At the 9:30AM service, keiki are invited (but not required) to participate in Sunday School. The entire congregation, young and young at heart, come together for Eucharist (Communion). During the celebration of Eucharist, keiki are welcome to move closer to the altar or to stand on the pew to see what is going on.

Sunday School: At our 9:30AM service we offer Sunday School for keiki ages 3 years old through 5th grade except on the fifth Sunday of the month when our entire 'Ohana comes together for both The Word and Sacrament. The keiki begin the service in the Church for the processional hymn. Following the Collect for Purity, during the singing of the Song of Praise, all keiki participating in Sunday School will follow the Keiki Cross out of the Church and over to Memorial Hall. During the announcement time, the keiki rejoin the congregation for the celebration of Holy Eucharist.

Nursery: The nursery is available at the 9:30AM service in Memorial Hall (small white building just south, Lihue side, of the Church.) The nursery is not staffed by the Church—an adult family member will need to stay with their child. The audio of the service is broadcast into the Nursery.

Aloha Hour: Following the 9:30AM Sunday service, please join us on the south lawn for our “Aloha Hour” for refreshments and an opportunity to talk story with you.

Restrooms: There are restrooms located in our gym building, which is the large red “barn-like” building south (Lihue side) of the Church. There are additional restrooms in Sloggett Hall which is the preschool building located northeast (Kapa'a side) of the Church—look for the short chain-link fence leading into a courtyard.

Making All Saints' Your Spiritual Home: We live into the ideal that “You can belong before you believe.” All Saints' is a diverse and dynamic community of faith committed to the values of 'ohana (family), kākou (inclusiveness), lokomaika'i (selflessness), ho'ohanohano (respect), mālama (compassion), and aloha (love). If you have any questions, need more information, or are interested in calling All Saints' your spiritual home, please speak to our priest or any member of the Vestry.

Other Sacraments and Pastoral Care: All Saints' offers to the community the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Matrimony (Marriage), Unction (Healing), and Reconciliation (Confession). We also offer the pastoral ministries of prayer, blessings, pastoral care, and burial. Please speak to our priest if you would like more information.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING Isaiah 58:1-12

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God.

[Continue to next page]

"Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?"
Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers.
Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist.

Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD?

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin?

Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

PSALM 112:1-9

1 Hallelujah!

Happy are they who fear the Lord *
and have great delight in his commandments!

2 Their descendants will be mighty in the land; *
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

3 Wealth and riches will be in their house, *
and their righteousness will last for ever.

4 Light shines in the darkness for the upright; *
the righteous are merciful and full of compassion.

5 It is good for them to be generous in lending * and to manage their affairs with justice.

6 For they will never be shaken; *
the righteous will be kept in everlasting remembrance.

7 They will not be afraid of any evil rumors; *
their heart is right;
they put their trust in the Lord.

8 Their heart is established and will not shrink, *
until they see their desire upon their enemies.

9 They have given freely to the poor, *
and their righteousness stands fast for ever;
they will hold up their head with honor.

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 2:1-12

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written,

“What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived,
what God has prepared for those who love him”—

These things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

GOSPELMatthew 5:13-20

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

“You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

“Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON*Kahu Kawika Jackson*

A period of silence and personal reflection follows the sermon.

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting that God hears us, let us pray for the church, the world, and all those in need. (A brief silence.) Holy God, it is your desire that all people might come to know you intimately. Lead our communities into deeper relationship with you. May your church radiate your righteousness to all whom we encounter. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of creation, you quench the dry ground, bringing water that sustains life. Satisfy the needs of all the earth, so that all living things bear witness to your verdant grace and continue to shout your praise. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of glory, during your time here on earth you were crucified by powerful rulers who did not understand you. Grant leaders in our day wisdom and discernment, that they may recognize you in the lives of the people they serve. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of justice, you free us from the oppression that binds us and exhort us to serve one another. Liberate us from all fear, bigotry, and greed, and set our hearts and minds on love, equality, and justice. We pray for those who are suffering in any way this day especially Keith, Ella, Jeremy, Li, Steph S. Gayle, Buddy, Terry D., Marge, Missy, and those we name silently or aloud (brief silence). Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of life, you reveal your saving love to us through the power of your Spirit. Bless those among us who are preparing to encounter your invigorating will in a new way, especially the Shields Family who are preparing for Dawson's baptism. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of all eternity, we give you thanks for the lives of the saints who have pointed us towards faithfulness in you. We pray for all those who have died in the faith especially Del, Edith, and those we name silently or aloud (brief silence). May we trust in your endless mercy and grace. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

We pray for the Episcopal Church on Kaua'i: St. John's and St. Paul's, St. Michael and All Angels, Christ Memorial, and All Saints'. May we be united in our ministry and that we all may be one. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

We give thanks for our Lay Readers who use their voices to share the Word of God during worship. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The people may stand or kneel.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

A period of silent confession will be observed. Followed by the congregation saying together:

in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

OFFERTORY INVITATION

Celebrant Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Offertory Anthem:Light of the world

BY STEPHAN SCHWARTZ

*You are the light of the world!
You are the light of the world!
But if that light is under a bushel,
It's lost something kind of crucial
You got to stay bright to be the light of the world*

*You are the salt of the earth
You are the salt of the earth
But if that salt has lost it's flavor
It ain't got much in its favor
You can't have that fault and be the salt of the earth!*

(Chorus):

*So let your light so shine before men
Let your light so shine
Oh that they might know some kindness again
We all need help to feel fine (let's have some wine!)*

*You are the city of God
You are the city of God
But if that city's on a hill
It's kinda hard to hide it well
Gotta to stay pretty in the city of God*

(Chorus)

*You are the light of the world
You are the light of the world
But the tallest candlestick
Ain't much good without a wick
Gotta live right to be the light of the world*

Offertory Presentation Ho 'onani i Ka Makua Mau
 (PRAISE GOD FROM WHOM ALL BLESSINGS FLOW)

*Representatives of the congregation bring the peoples offerings to the celebrant.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est._____

The people may stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

Celebrant continues

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say.

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

WHEREVER YOU ARE IN YOUR SPIRITUAL JOURNEY, YOU ARE WELCOMED AT GOD’S TABLE.

During the distribution of communion, we kindly ask that the Church sanctuary be a place of profound and sacred silence to allow for prayer and discernment.

THOSE RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION: It is the custom to come forward and place the palm of one hand in the other to receive the bread. The unleavened bread, baked into a thin round wafer, is given first, followed by the wine. You may receive the wine either by guiding the chalice to your mouth, or by carefully dipping the wafer into the wine—this practice is known as “intinction” and is a matter of personal preference. If you wish to receive only bread, consume the wafer and then cross your arms over your chest when the chalice bearer approaches you.

FOR THOSE RECEIVING A BLESSING in lieu of Communion: It is the custom to come forward and to fold your arms across your chest in an X-fashion, which indicates that you are not receiving the sacrament. The Priest will offer a prayer of blessing for you.

Gluten free communion is available upon request, please ask the Priest during Communion.

Please inform an usher if you would like communion brought to you where you are seated.

At 9:30AM, during Communion, prayers are offered in the side chapel.

*This is the table, not of the Church but of Jesus Christ.
It is made ready for those who love God and who want to love God more.
So come, you who have much faith and you who have little,
You who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time or ever before,
You who have tried to follow and you who have failed.
Come, not because the Church invites you;
It is Christ who invites you to be known and fed here.*

Reconstructing Kauai's Only Pipe Organ

In 1925, Mrs. S. W. Wilcox generously donated an Austin Pipe Organ to Kaua'i's first Episcopal mission, All Saints'. It was the first pipe organ on Kaua'i. Ninety years later, the historic instrument is still Kaua'i's only pipe organ.

As a cathedral for the arts on Kaua'i, the pipe organ is an integral and beloved part of the Church's worship services and community music outreach program. Unfortunately, age and the tropical environment took their toll on this beautiful and historic instrument. The pipe organ's various wood, metal, and leather parts deteriorated. Routine maintenance and minor repairs were unable to stop the inevitable finale of the current pipe organ's lifespan. In February 2016, the pipe organ was decommissioned.

In January 2016, All Saints' launched a capital campaign to reconstruct the pipe organ. A budget of $285,000 has been established to reconstruct the organ and to make some enhancements to the sanctuary and the adjoining spaces to support the pipe organ's functionality and the future vision of the music program.

All Saints' is grateful to be working with Rosales Pipe Organ Services, Inc. of Los Angeles, California. Manuel Rosales and his team bring an impressive background to this extraordinary project. Manuel has restored organs throughout the United States and is a leader in the preservation of historic organs; he is considered by his colleagues to be one of the best in the industry. Rosales Pipe Organ's signature project is the world-renowned organ at the Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles. Manuel's vision is to design and build an exceptional and one-of-a-kind custom organ that includes native Hawaiian instrumentation and 'Ōlelo Hawaii nomenclature. Manuel has taken a deep interest in the project because of the historical and cultural implications of rebuilding Kaua'i's only pipe organ.

Upon completion of the project, the organ and renewed church interior will be an ideal setting for worship and music education, outreach through community concerts, and a sacred gathering space for the people of Kaua'i.
