

ALL SAINTS'

EPISCOPAL CHURCH & PRESCHOOL

The First Sunday of Lent
March 1, 2020

Aloha!

Welcome to All Saints' Episcopal Church and Preschool on the beautiful Garden Island of Kaua'i.

All Saints' vision is to be a gathering place for the people of Kaua'i—a center for worship, education, outreach, and the arts.

The Episcopal Church in Hawai'i was Chartered in 1862 under the laws of the Kingdom of Hawai'i after King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma invited the Church of England to Hawai'i. The King and Queen supported the Church's presence throughout the islands with gifts of land, which includes the land that All Saints' calls home.

As a Church in the Episcopal Diocese of Hawai'i, All Saints' is a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion that joins together over 70 million members in 163 countries. All Saints' was founded as Kaua'i's first mission of the Episcopal Church in 1924 at Kealia, four miles north of Kapa'a. The mission moved to its present campus in 1925.

For our Visitors: Whether you are visiting All Saints' from across the globe or down the street, we welcome you and invite you to fully participate in this worship service. Please take a moment to fill out a visitor card located in the pews—ushers have additional copies. The visitor cards let us know who you are and how we can support you in your spiritual journey. In keeping with Hawaiian tradition, as an honored guest, you should have received a lei from an usher. If not, please identify yourself as a visitor to an usher and they will properly welcome you to All Saints'.

Worshipping with Us: The entire order of the service is contained in this service booklet. We have large-print service booklets available—please see an usher. You are invited to participate fully in the service. During the distribution of Communion, you are welcomed to receive the Sacrament or a blessing from the priest. Additional information about Communion is contained in the Communion section of this service booklet. If you have any questions or concerns during the service, please do not hesitate to speak to an usher or your fellow congregants.

Keiki (Children) in Worship: God blessed keiki with the ability to wiggle. The joyous sounds, movements, and curiosity of keiki are gifts from God. Please do not feel you have to subdue those joys in God's house. We want God's keiki to be comfortable. At the 9:30AM service, keiki are invited (but not required) to participate in Sunday School. The entire congregation, young and young at heart, come together for Eucharist (Communion). During the celebration of Eucharist, keiki are welcome to move closer to the altar or to stand on the pew to see what is going on.

Sunday School: At our 9:30AM service we offer Sunday School for keiki ages 3 years old through 5th grade except on the fifth Sunday of the month when our entire 'Ohana comes together for both The Word and Sacrament. The keiki begin the service in the Church for the processional hymn. Following the Collect for Purity, during the singing of the Song of Praise, all keiki participating in Sunday School will follow the Keiki Cross out of the Church and over to Memorial Hall. During the announcement time, the keiki rejoin the congregation for the celebration of Holy Eucharist.

Nursery: The nursery is available at the 9:30AM service in Memorial Hall (small white building just south, Lihue side, of the Church.) The nursery is not staffed by the Church—an adult family member will need to stay with their child. The audio of the service is broadcast into the Nursery.

Aloha Hour: Following the 9:30AM Sunday service, please join us on the south lawn for our “Aloha Hour” for refreshments and an opportunity to talk story with you.

Restrooms: There are restrooms located in our gym building, which is the large red “barn-like” building south (Lihue side) of the Church. There are additional restrooms in Sloggett Hall which is the preschool building located northeast (Kapa'a side) of the Church—look for the short chain-link fence leading into a courtyard.

Making All Saints' Your Spiritual Home: We live into the ideal that “You can belong before you believe.” All Saints' is a diverse and dynamic community of faith committed to the values of 'ohana (family), kākou (inclusiveness), lokomaika'i (selflessness), ho'ohanohano (respect), mālama (compassion), and aloha (love). If you have any questions, need more information, or are interested in calling All Saints' your spiritual home, please speak to our priest or any member of the Vestry.

Other Sacraments and Pastoral Care: All Saints' offers to the community the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Matrimony (Marriage), Unction (Healing), and Reconciliation (Confession). We also offer the pastoral ministries of prayer, blessings, pastoral care, and burial. Please speak to our priest if you would like more information.

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of three systems. Each system has a vocal line on a single treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics are placed below the vocal line. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines in both hands. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

(The Bishop has asked all the churches in our diocese to use the following order of service during the Lenten Season. It combines elements from “Enriching Our Worship 1” with the Hawaiian Eucharist liturgy, “Ka ‘Eukalikia Hemolele”.)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

FIRST READING Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7

The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, “You may freely eat of every three of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.”

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God say, ‘You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?’” The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; but God said, ‘You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.’” But the serpent said to the woman, “You will not die; for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

PSALM 32:1-12

- 1 Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven,*
and whose sin is put away!
- 2 Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no guilt,*
and in whose spirit there is no guile!
- 3 While I held my tongue, my bones withered away,*
because of my groaning all day long.
- 4 For your hand was heavy upon me day and night;*
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.
- 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you,*
and did not conceal my guilt.
- 6 I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD."*
Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.
- 7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble;*
when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach them.
- 8 You are my hiding-place; you preserve me from trouble;*
you surround me with shouts of deliverance.
- 9 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go;*
I will guide you with my eye.
- 10 Do not be like horse or mule, which have no understanding;*
who must be fitted with bit and bridle, or else they will not stay near you."
- 11 Great are the tribulations of the wicked,*
but mercy embraces those who trust in the LORD.
- 12 Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in the LORD;*
shout for joy, all who are true of heart.

SECOND READING Romans 5:12-19

As sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned-- sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come.

But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

GOSPEL Matthew 4:1-11

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” But he answered, “It is written,

‘One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written,

‘He will command his angels concerning you,’
and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’”

Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” Jesus said to him, “Away with you, Satan! for it is written,

‘Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.’”

Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

SERMON*Kahu Kawika Jackson*

A period of silence and personal reflection follows the sermon.

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est._____

The people may stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world.

Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma, Queen Lili‘uokalani, and all the saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say.

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant God of promise, you have prepared a banquet for us.

People Happy are those who are called to the Supper of the Lamb.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

WHEREVER YOU ARE IN YOUR SPIRITUAL JOURNEY, YOU ARE WELCOMED AT GOD’S TABLE.

During the distribution of communion, we kindly ask that the Church sanctuary be a place of profound and sacred silence to allow for prayer and discernment.

THOSE RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION: It is the custom to come forward and place the palm of one hand in the other to receive the bread. The unleavened bread, baked into a thin round wafer, is given first, followed by the wine. You may receive the wine either by guiding the chalice to your mouth, or by carefully dipping the wafer into the wine—this practice is known as “intinction” and is a matter of personal preference. If you wish to receive only bread, consume the wafer and then cross your arms over your chest when the chalice bearer approaches you.

FOR THOSE RECEIVING A BLESSING in lieu of Communion: It is the custom to come forward and to fold your arms across your chest in an X-fashion, which indicates that you are not receiving the sacrament. The Priest will offer a prayer of blessing for you.

*Gluten free communion is available upon request, please ask the Priest during Communion.
Please inform an usher if you would like communion brought to you where you are seated.
At 9:30AM, during Communion, prayers are offered in the side chapel.*

*This is the table, not of the Church but of Jesus Christ.
It is made ready for those who love God and who want to love God more.
So come, you who have much faith and you who have little,
You who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time or ever before,
You who have tried to follow and you who have failed.
Come, not because the Church invites you;
It is Christ who invites you to be known and fed here.*

Reconstructing Kauai's Only Pipe Organ

In 1925, Mrs. S. W. Wilcox generously donated an Austin Pipe Organ to Kaua'i's first Episcopal mission, All Saints'. It was the first pipe organ on Kaua'i. Ninety years later, the historic instrument is still Kaua'i's only pipe organ.

As a cathedral for the arts on Kaua'i, the pipe organ is an integral and beloved part of the Church's worship services and community music outreach program. Unfortunately, age and the tropical environment took their toll on this beautiful and historic instrument. The pipe organ's various wood, metal, and leather parts deteriorated. Routine maintenance and minor repairs were unable to stop the inevitable finale of the current pipe organ's lifespan. In February 2016, the pipe organ was decommissioned.

In January 2016, All Saints' launched a capital campaign to reconstruct the pipe organ. A budget of $285,000 has been established to reconstruct the organ and to make some enhancements to the sanctuary and the adjoining spaces to support the pipe organ's functionality and the future vision of the music program.

All Saints' is grateful to be working with Rosales Pipe Organ Services, Inc. of Los Angeles, California. Manuel Rosales and his team bring an impressive background to this extraordinary project. Manuel has restored organs throughout the United States and is a leader in the preservation of historic organs; he is considered by his colleagues to be one of the best in the industry. Rosales Pipe Organ's signature project is the world-renowned organ at the Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles. Manuel's vision is to design and build an exceptional and one-of-a-kind custom organ that includes native Hawaiian instrumentation and 'Ōlelo Hawaii nomenclature. Manuel has taken a deep interest in the project because of the historical and cultural implications of rebuilding Kaua'i's only pipe organ.

Upon completion of the project, the organ and renewed church interior will be an ideal setting for worship and music education, outreach through community concerts, and a sacred gathering space for the people of Kaua'i.
