*Happy Easter and welcome to
All Saints' Episcopal Church and Preschool*

Aleluia. Ua ala hou 'o Kristo. Ua ala hou nō ho'i ka Haku. Aleluia.
Alleluia. Christ is risen. The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Aloha! Our 'Ohana gather this evening to celebrate the deepest, most important truth we know—that in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God has entered into our world to bring hope, healing, and new life. Jesus embodied God's unstoppable love so completely that he became a threat to nearly everyone around him, and he was hung on a cross for refusing to compromise or set limits on that love. Tonight, the church proclaims that death was not the last word for him, that God raised him to new life, and in doing that has opened the possibility of healing and hope for everyone.

Easter promises that, as with the first disciples, we too can know this risen Lord and can find our lives being filled with his life. So our celebration today is not simply about an event long ago, but about how the miracle of resurrection can take place in us.

We are delighted you are here for this service as we make the journey from the darkness of Good Friday to the first in-breaking of Easter. Whether you are visiting from across the globe or down the street, you are welcome here at All Saints'! We hope you will come back often as we explore what this Easter faith can do for us and for our world. If this is your first visit to All Saints', please help us welcome you by filling out a visitor card located in the pews. If you have any questions, feel free to speak to one of the ushers or the clergy.

May you discover this Easter joy for yourself through this season and throughout the year.

Ke Akua ho'omaika'i 'oukou! A hui hou kakou.
May the blessing of God be with you! Until we meet again.

Aloha!

Happy Easter!

Welcome to All Saints' Episcopal Church and Preschool on the beautiful Garden Island of Kaua'i.

All Saints' vision is to be a gathering place for the people of Kaua'i—a center for worship, education, outreach, and the arts.

The Episcopal Church in Hawai'i was Chartered in 1862 under the laws of the Kingdom of Hawai'i after King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma invited the Church of England to Hawai'i. The King and Queen supported the Church's presence throughout the islands with gifts of land, which includes the land that All Saints' calls home.

As a Church in the Episcopal Diocese of Hawai'i, All Saints' is a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion that joins together over 70 million members in 163 countries. All Saints' was founded as Kaua'i's first mission of the Episcopal Church in 1924 at Kealia, four miles north of Kapa'a. The mission moved to its present campus in 1925.

For our Visitors: Whether you are visiting All Saints' from across the globe or down the street, we welcome you and invite you to fully participate in this worship service. Please take a moment to fill out a visitor card located in the pews—ushers have additional copies. The visitor cards let us know who you are and how we can support you in your spiritual journey. In keeping with Hawaiian tradition, as an honored guest, you should have received a lei from an usher. If not, please identify yourself as a visitor to an usher and they will properly welcome you to All Saints'.

Worshipping with Us: The entire order of the service is contained in this service booklet. You are invited to participate fully in the service. During the distribution of Communion, you are welcomed to receive the Sacrament or a blessing from the priest. Additional information about Communion is contained in the Communion section of this service booklet. If you have any questions or concerns during the service, please do not hesitate to speak to an usher or your fellow congregants.

Keiki (Children) in Worship: God blessed keiki with the ability to wiggle. The joyous sounds, movements, and curiosity of keiki are gifts from God. Please do not feel you have to subdue those joys in God's house. We want God's keiki to be comfortable. At the 9:30AM service, keiki are invited (but not required) to participate in Sunday School. The entire congregation, young and young at heart, come together for Eucharist (Communion). During the celebration of Eucharist, keiki are welcome to move closer to the altar or to stand on the pew to see what is going on.

Sunday School: At our 9:30AM service we offer Sunday School for keiki ages 3 years old through 5th grade except on the fifth Sunday of the month when our entire 'Ohana comes together for both The Word and Sacrament. The keiki begin the service in the Church for the processional hymn. Following the Collect for Purity, during the singing of the Song of Praise, all keiki participating in Sunday School will follow the Keiki Cross out of the Church and over to Memorial Hall. During the announcement time, the keiki rejoin the congregation for the celebration of Holy Eucharist.

Nursery: The nursery is available at the 9:30AM service in Memorial Hall (small white building just south, Lihue side, of the Church.) The nursery is not staffed by the Church—an adult family member will need to stay with their child. The audio of the service is broadcast into the Nursery.

Restrooms: There are restrooms located in our gym building, which is the large red “barn-like” building south (Lihue side) of the Church. There are additional restrooms in Sloggett Hall which is the preschool building located northeast (Kapa'a side) of the Church—look for the short chain-link fence leading into a courtyard.

Making All Saints' Your Spiritual Home: We live into the ideal that “You can belong before you believe.” All Saints' is a diverse and dynamic community of faith committed to the values of 'ohana (family), kākou (inclusiveness), lokomaiika'i (selflessness), ho'ohanohano (respect), mālama (compassion), and aloha (love). If you have any questions, need more information, or are interested in calling All Saints' your spiritual home, please speak to our priest or any member of the Vestry.

Laundry Love (Outreach): On the first and third Wednesdays of each month from 5:30PM - 8:30PM, All Saints' offers a free laundry service ministry to the community at the Kapa'a Laundromat in the Kapa'a Shopping Center (Big Save Center). All are welcomed! If you are interested in volunteering, please speak to Father Ryan.

Other Sacraments and Pastoral Care: All Saints' offers to the community the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Matrimony (Marriage), Unction (Healing), and Reconciliation (Confession). We also offer the pastoral ministries of prayer, blessings, pastoral care, and burial. Please speak to our priest if you would like more information.

THE GREAT VIGIL & FIRST MASS OF EASTER

APRIL 20, 2019 | 7:00PM

The congregation gathers outside the Church. In the darkness, the first fire of Easter is kindled.

The Celebrant says

Dear friends in Christ: On this most holy night, in which our Lord Jesus passed over from death to life, the Church invites her members, dispersed throughout the world, to gather in vigil and prayer. For this is the Passover of the Lord, in which, by hearing his Word and celebrating his Sacraments, we share in his victory over death.

Let us pray. O God, through your Son you have bestowed upon your people the brightness of your light: Sanctify this new fire, and grant that in this Paschal feast we may so burn with heavenly desires, that with pure minds we may attain to the festival of everlasting light; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

The Paschal Candle is then lit from the newly kindled fire, and the Celebrant bearing the Candle, leads the procession to the chancel, pausing three times saying:

Celebrant The light of Christ.

People Thanks be to God.

Candles are lit from the Paschal Candle at this time. The Paschal Candle is placed in its stand.

THE EXSULTET

Rejoice now, heavenly hosts and choirs of angels, and let your trumpets shout
Salvation
for the victory of our mighty King.

Rejoice and sing now, all the round earth, bright with a glorious splendor, for darkness has been vanquished by our eternal King.

Rejoice and be glad now, Mother Church, and let your holy courts, in radiant light, resound with the praises of your people. All you who stand near this marvelous and holy flame, pray with me to God the Almighty for the grace to sing the worthy praise of this great light; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord has risen indeed. Alleluia!

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right and good, always and everywhere, with our whole heart and mind and voice, to praise you, the invisible, almighty, and eternal God, and your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who at the feast of the Passover paid for us the debt of Adam's sin, and by his blood delivered your faithful people.

This is the night, when you brought our fathers, the children of Israel, out of bondage in Egypt, and led them through the Red Sea on dry land. This is the night, when all who believe in Christ are delivered from the gloom of sin, and are restored to grace and holiness of life.

This is the night, when Christ broke the bonds of death and hell, and rose victorious from the grave.

How wonderful and beyond our knowing, O God, is your mercy and loving-kindness to us, that to redeem a slave, you gave a Son. How holy is this night, when wickedness is put to flight, and sin is washed away. It restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to those who mourn. It casts out pride and hatred, and brings peace and concord. How blessed is this night, when earth and heaven are joined and man is reconciled to God.

Holy Father, accept our evening sacrifice, the offering of this candle in your honor. May it shine continually to drive away all darkness. May Christ, the Morning Star who knows no setting, find it ever burning—he who gives his light to all creation, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Celebrant

Let us hear the record of God's saving deeds in history, how he saved his people in ages past; and let us pray that our God will bring each of us to the fullness of redemption.

THE STORY OF CREATIONGenesis 1:1-2:4a

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters.

Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.” So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, “Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.” So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.”

God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so.

God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

The Lord has risen indeed. Alleluia!

*In a deep, unbounded darkness,
long before the first light shone,
you, O God, beyond all merit worked a wonder faith makes known:
in your mercy, in your mercy,
you embraced us as your own,
evermore and evermore.*

*Though our world is ever-changing,
you are constant, firm, and sure,
faithful to your covenant promise.
Trusting you, we live, secure:
singing praises, singing praises,
long as heart and breath endure,
evermore and evermore.*

*Joy transforms our lips to boasting only in your matchless grace, sending Christ to dwell among us,
Word made flesh in time and space:
Friend and Savior, Friend and Savior,
in whose life we glimpse your face,
evermore and evermore.*

THE FLOODGenesis 7:1-5, 11-18, 8:6-18, 9:8-13

he Lord said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you alone are righteous before me in this generation. Take with you seven pairs of all clean animals, the male and its mate; and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and its mate; and seven pairs of the birds of the air also, male and female, to keep their kind alive on the face of all the earth. For in seven days I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights; and every living thing that I have made I will blot out from the face of the ground." And Noah did all that the Lord had commanded him.

In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst forth, and the windows of the heavens were opened. The rain fell on the earth forty days and forty nights. On the very same day Noah with his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons entered the ark, they and every wild animal of every kind, and all domestic animals of every kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every bird of every kind-- every bird, every winged creature. They went into the ark with Noah, two and two of all flesh in which there was the breath of life. And those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the Lord shut him in.

The flood continued forty days on the earth; and the waters increased, and bore up the ark, and it rose high above the earth. The waters swelled and increased greatly on the earth; and the ark floated on the face of the waters.

At the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made and sent out the raven; and it went to and fro until the waters were dried up from the earth. Then he sent out the dove from him, to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground; but the dove found no place to set its foot, and it returned to him to the ark, for the waters were still on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took it and brought it into the ark with him. He waited another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark; and the dove came back to him in the evening, and there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf; so Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth. Then he waited another seven days, and sent out the dove; and it did not return to him any more.

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

In the six hundred first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and saw that the face of the ground was drying. In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. Then God said to Noah, "Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you. Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh-- birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth-- so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth." So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives.

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, "As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth." God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth."

Response to the Reading..... Psalm 46

- 1 God is our refuge and strength,*
a very present help in trouble.
- 2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved,*
and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;
- 3 Though its waters rage and foam,*
and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.
- 4 The LORD of hosts is with us;* the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 5 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,*
the holy habitation of the Most High.
- 6 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be overthrown;*
God shall help her at the break of day.
- 7 The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are shaken;*
God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away.
- 8 The LORD of hosts is with us;*
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 9 Come now and look upon the works of the LORD,*
what awesome things he has done on earth.
- 10 It is he who makes war to cease in all the world;*
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear, and burns the shields with fire.
- 11 "Be still, then, and know that I am God;*
I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth."
- 12 The LORD of hosts is with us;*
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Let us pray. O God, whose wonderful deeds of old shine forth even to our own day, you once delivered by the power of your mighty arm your chosen people from slavery under Pharaoh, to be a sign for us of the salvation of all nations by the water of Baptism: Grant that all the peoples of the earth may be numbered among the offspring of Abraham, and rejoice in the inheritance of Israel; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ISRAEL'S DELIVERANCE AT THE RED SEA Exodus 14:10-31; 15:20-21

As Pharaoh drew near, the Israelites looked back, and there were the Egyptians advancing on them. In great fear the Israelites cried out to the Lord. They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us, bringing us out of Egypt? Is this not the very thing we told you in Egypt, 'Let us alone and let us serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness." But Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid, stand firm, and see the deliverance that the Lord will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you see today you shall never see again. The Lord will fight for you, and you have only to keep still."

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Why do you cry out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. But you lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the Israelites may go into the sea on dry ground. Then I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them; and so I will gain glory for myself over Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots, and his chariot drivers. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I have gained glory for myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his chariot drivers."

The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them. It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The Lord drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided. The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers. At the morning watch the Lord in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the Israelites, for the Lord is fighting for them against Egypt."

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers." So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the Lord tossed the Egyptians into the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.

Thus the Lord saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great work that the Lord did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the Lord and believed in the Lord and in his servant Moses.

Then the prophet Miriam, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dancing. And Miriam sang to them:

"Sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously;
horse and rider he has thrown into the sea."

The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem:

Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival.

I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it. I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, who made this most holy night to shine with the glory of the Lord's resurrection: Stir up in your Church that Spirit of adoption which is given to us in Baptism, that we, being renewed both in body and mind, may worship you in sincerity and truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGRomans 6:3-11

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

PSALM 114

The Psalm is read responsively by half verse, breaking at the asterisk.

- 1 Hallelujah! When Israel came out of Egypt, *
the house of Jacob from a people of strange speech,
- 2 Judah became God's sanctuary *
and Israel his dominion.
- 3 The sea beheld it and fled; *
Jordan turned and went back.
- 4 The mountains skipped like rams, *
and the little hills like young sheep.
- 5 What ailed you, O sea, that you fled? *
O Jordan, that you turned back?
- 6 You mountains, that you skipped like rams? *
you little hills like young sheep?
- 7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, *
at the presence of the God of Jacob,
- 8 Who turned the hard rock into a pool of water *
and flint-stone into a flowing spring.

The Lord has risen indeed. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 24:1-12

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

n the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women who had come with Jesus from Galilee came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

SERMON The Reverend David Englund

A brief period of silence follows the sermon.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rejoicing in the mighty acts of God who has delivered his people from sin and death through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, let us lift our voices and pray, Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

Let us give thanks to God for the multitude of blessings he showers upon us: For our lives and for those whom we love, for the beauty of this home God has created for us, for our families and our friendships, let us give thanks to the God of Life. Risen Lord,

We rejoice in your generosity. Alleluia!

Let us pray for the Church, that it may carry forward the redemptive works of God: For our clergy and our bishops, for the many lay people who serve the church and serve the world through the church. For those gathered here in worship and prayer. Risen Lord,

We rejoice in your love. Alleluia!

Let us pray for those baptized during Easter, that the joy of Easter may ever grow within them, and that the Spirit may guide them in lives of active faith. Risen Lord,

We rejoice in your spirit. Alleluia!

Let us pray for the nations and peoples of the world, that the powers that oppress and destroy may decline, and that justice, peace, and prosperity be lifted up. Risen Lord,

We rejoice in your peace. Alleluia!

Let us pray for those who are sick, those who suffer, those who struggle: and who have died: That the hope born of Easter give them peace, acceptance and renewal, and that through their struggles they may come into closer communion with the God who redeems and restores. Risen Lord,

We rejoice in your resurrection. Alleluia!

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

Celebrant

Christ is Risen: The world below lies desolate,
Christ is Risen: The spirits of evil are fallen,
Christ is Risen: The angels of God are rejoicing,
Christ is Risen: The tombs of the dead are empty,
Christ is Risen indeed from the dead, the first of the sleepers,
Alleluia! Glory and power are his forever and ever.

People Amen.

Offertory Anthem Hallelujah, What a Savior!

WORDS BY PHILIP P. BASS, MUSIC BY JOSH BAUDER

“Man of Sorrows!” what a name
For the Son of God, who came Ruined sinners to reclaim.
Hallelujah! What a Savior!

Lifted up was He to die;
“It is finished!” was His cry;
Now in Heav’n exalted high.
Hallelujah! What a Savior!

Bearing shame and scoffing rude,
In my place condemned He stood;
Sealed my pardon with His blood.
Hallelujah! What a Savior!

When He comes, our glorious King,
All His ransomed home to bring,
Then anew His song we’ll sing:
Hallelujah! What a Savior.

Guilty, vile, and helpless we;
Spotless Lamb of God was He;
“Full atonement!” can it be?
Hallelujah! What a Savior!

The Lord has risen indeed. Alleluia!

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing

The musical score is written on five staves of music in a single system. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff contains the lyrics: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might,". The second staff contains: "heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -". The third staff contains: "san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.". The fourth staff contains: "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -". The fifth staff contains: "san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est." and ends with a double bar line.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

The Lord has risen indeed. Alleluia!

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and for ever.

People AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The Lord has risen indeed. Alleluia!

Wherever you are in your spiritual journey,
you are welcomed at God's Table.

During the distribution of communion, we kindly ask that the Church sanctuary be a place of profound and sacred silence to allow for prayer and discernment.

If you are unable to move up to the Communion rail, please notify an usher and Communion will be brought to you.

FOR THOSE RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION: It is the custom to come forward and place the palm of one hand in the other to receive the bread. The unleavened bread, baked into a thin round wafer, is given first, followed by the wine. You may receive the wine either by guiding the chalice to your mouth, or by carefully dipping the wafer into the wine—this practice is known as “intinction” and is a matter of personal preference. If you wish to receive only bread, consume the wafer and then cross your arms over your chest when the chalice bearer approaches you.

FOR THOSE RECEIVING A BLESSING IN LIEU OF COMMUNION: It is the custom to come forward and to fold your arms across your chest in an X-fashion, which indicates that you are not receiving the sacrament. The Priest will offer a prayer of blessing for you.

Gluten free communion is available upon request, please ask the Priest at the altar rail.

*This is the table, not of the Church but of Jesus Christ.
It is made ready for those who love God and who want to love God more.
So come, you who have much faith and you who have little,
You who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time or ever before,
You who have tried to follow and you who have failed.
Come, not because the Church invites you;
It is Christ who invites you to be known and fed here.*

Reconstructing Kauai's Only Pipe Organ

In 1925, Mrs. S. W. Wilcox generously donated an Austin Pipe Organ to Kaua'i's first Episcopal mission, All Saints'. It was the first pipe organ on Kaua'i. Ninety years later, the historic instrument is still Kaua'i's only pipe organ.

As a cathedral for the arts on Kaua'i, the pipe organ is an integral and beloved part of the Church's worship services and community music outreach program. Unfortunately, age and the tropical environment took their toll on this beautiful and historic instrument. The pipe organ's various wood, metal, and leather parts deteriorated. Routine maintenance and minor repairs were unable to stop the inevitable finale of the current pipe organ's lifespan. In February 2016, the pipe organ was decommissioned.

In January 2016, All Saints' launched a capital campaign to reconstruct the pipe organ. A budget of $285,000 has been established to reconstruct the organ and to make some enhancements to the sanctuary and the adjoining spaces to support the pipe organ's functionality and the future vision of the music program. The target completion of the project is November 2019.

All Saints' is grateful to be working with Rosales Pipe Organ Services, Inc. of Los Angeles, California. Manuel Rosales and his team bring an impressive background to this extraordinary project. Manuel has restored organs throughout the United States and is a leader in the preservation of historic organs; he is considered by his colleagues to be one of the best in the industry. Rosales Pipe Organ's signature project is the world-renowned organ at the Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles. Manuel's vision is to design and build an exceptional and one-of-a-kind custom organ that includes native Hawaiian instrumentation and 'Ōlelo Hawaii nomenclature. Manuel has taken a deep interest in the project because of the historical and cultural implications of rebuilding Kauai's only pipe organ.

Upon completion of the project, the organ and renewed church interior will be an ideal setting for worship and music education, outreach through community concerts, and a sacred gathering space for the people of Kaua'i.
