

ALL SAINTS'

EPISCOPAL CHURCH & PRESCHOOL

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
TRINITY SUNDAY
June 16, 2019

Aloha!

Welcome to All Saints' Episcopal Church and Preschool on the beautiful Garden Island of Kaua'i.

All Saints' vision is to be a gathering place for the people of Kaua'i—a center for worship, education, outreach, and the arts.

The Episcopal Church in Hawai'i was Chartered in 1862 under the laws of the Kingdom of Hawai'i after King Kamehameha IV and Queen Emma invited the Church of England to Hawai'i. The King and Queen supported the Church's presence throughout the islands with gifts of land, which includes the land that All Saints' calls home.

As a Church in the Episcopal Diocese of Hawai'i, All Saints' is a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion that joins together over 70 million members in 163 countries. All Saints' was founded as Kaua'i's first mission of the Episcopal Church in 1924 at Kealia, four miles north of Kapa'a. The mission moved to its present campus in 1925.

For our Visitors: Whether you are visiting All Saints' from across the globe or down the street, we welcome you and invite you to fully participate in this worship service. Please take a moment to fill out a visitor card located in the pews—ushers have additional copies. The visitor cards let us know who you are and how we can support you in your spiritual journey. In keeping with Hawaiian tradition, as an honored guest, you should have received a lei from an usher. If not, please identify yourself as a visitor to an usher and they will properly welcome you to All Saints'.

Worshipping with Us: The entire order of the service is contained in this service booklet. We have large-print service booklets available—please see an usher. You are invited to participate fully in the service. During the distribution of Communion, you are welcomed to receive the Sacrament or a blessing from the priest. Additional information about Communion is contained in the Communion section of this service booklet. If you have any questions or concerns during the service, please do not hesitate to speak to an usher or your fellow congregants.

Keiki (Children) in Worship: God blessed keiki with the ability to wiggle. The joyous sounds, movements, and curiosity of keiki are gifts from God. Please do not feel you have to subdue those joys in God’s house. We want God’s keiki to be comfortable. At the 9:30AM service, keiki are invited (but not required) to participate in Sunday School. The entire congregation, young and young at heart, come together for Eucharist (Communion). During the celebration of Eucharist, keiki are welcome to move closer to the altar or to stand on the pew to see what is going on.

Sunday School: At our 9:30AM service we offer Sunday School for keiki ages 3 years old through 5th grade except on the fifth Sunday of the month when our entire ‘Ohana comes together for both The Word and Sacrament. The keiki begin the service in the Church for the processional hymn. Following the Collect for Purity, during the singing of the Song of Praise, all keiki participating in Sunday School will follow the Keiki Cross out of the Church and over to Memorial Hall. During the announcement time, the keiki rejoin the congregation for the celebration of Holy Eucharist.

Nursery: The nursery is available at the 9:30AM service in Memorial Hall (small white building just south, Lihue side, of the Church.) The nursery is not staffed by the Church—an adult family member will need to stay with their child. The audio of the service is broadcast into the Nursery.

Aloha Hour: Following the 9:30AM Sunday service, please join us on the south lawn for our “Aloha Hour” for refreshments and an opportunity to talk story with you.

Restrooms: There are restrooms located in our gym building, which is the large red “barn-like” building south (Lihue side) of the Church. There are additional restrooms in Sloggett Hall which is the preschool building located northeast (Kapa‘a side) of the Church—look for the short chain-link fence leading into a courtyard.

Making All Saints’ Your Spiritual Home: We live into the ideal that “You can belong before you believe.” All Saints’ is a diverse and dynamic community of faith committed to the values of ‘ohana (family), kākou (inclusiveness), lokomaiika’i (selflessness), ho’ohanohano (respect), mālama (compassion), and aloha (love). If you have any questions, need more information, or are interested in calling All Saints’ your spiritual home, please speak to any member of the Vestry.

Other Sacraments and Pastoral Care: All Saints’ offers to the community the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Matrimony (Marriage), Unction (Healing), and Reconciliation (Confession). We also offer the pastoral ministries of prayer, blessings, pastoral care, and burial. Please speak to our vestry if you would like more information.

Trinity Sunday

This Sunday, we celebrate “the one and equal glory” of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, “in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being” (BCP, p. 380). Trinity Sunday is celebrated on the first Sunday after Pentecost. Trinity Sunday is one of the seven principal feasts of the church year.

Celebration of Trinity Sunday was approved for the western church by Pope John XXII in 1334. This feast is associated with Thomas Becket (c. 1118-1170), who was consecrated bishop on Trinity Sunday, 1162. His martyrdom may have influenced the popularity of the feast in England and the custom of naming the remaining Sundays of the church year “Sundays after Trinity.”

The Trinity is one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (BCP, p. 852). The term is from the Latin tri, “three,” and unitas, “unity.” The term was devised by Tertullian to express the mystery of the unity-in-diversity of God. Trinity means “threefold unity.” The corresponding word in Greek is ho trias, which means “the Triad.” The Trinity is a perfect relationship of love in which neither unity nor distinctness of the divine persons is compromised.

The church took several centuries to work out a reasonably acceptable way to express the complex relation of Father, Son, and Spirit. The nearly complete doctrine of the Trinity announced at Constantinople in 381 held that God is one Being (ousia) in three equal and consubstantial persons or hypostases: the Father uncreated, the Son uncreated but begotten, the Spirit proceeding from the Father (and, in the western version of the Creed, the Son). The Athanasian Creed states that “we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity, neither confounding the Persons, nor dividing the Substance” (BCP, p. 864).

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

FIRST READING Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out:

"To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth-- when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race."

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

- 1 O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!
- 2 Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
- 3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
- 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
- 6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;
- 7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:
- 8 All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,
- 9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.
- 10 O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

SECOND READING Romans 5:1-5

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

GOSPELJohn 16:12-15

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

THE HOLY COMMUNION

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being; and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: GG 552.....Holy, Holy, Holy

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people may stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

The Celebrant continues.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say.

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

WHEREVER YOU ARE IN YOUR SPIRITUAL JOURNEY, YOU ARE WELCOMED AT GOD’S TABLE.

During the distribution of communion, we kindly ask that the Church sanctuary be a place of profound and sacred silence to allow for prayer and discernment.

THOSE RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION: It is the custom to come forward and place the palm of one hand in the other to receive the bread. The unleavened bread, baked into a thin round wafer, is given first, followed by the wine. You may receive the wine either by guiding the chalice to your mouth, or by carefully dipping the wafer into the wine—this practice is known as “intinction” and is a matter of personal preference. If you wish to receive only bread, consume the wafer and then cross your arms over your chest when the chalice bearer approaches you.

FOR THOSE RECEIVING A BLESSING in lieu of Communion: It is the custom to come forward and to fold your arms across your chest in an X-fashion, which indicates that you are not receiving the sacrament. The Priest will offer a prayer of blessing for you.

Gluten free communion is available upon request, please ask the Priest during Communion.

Please inform an usher if you would like communion brought to you where you are seated.

At 9:30AM, during Communion, healing prayers are offered in the side chapel.

*This is the table, not of the Church but of Jesus Christ.
It is made ready for those who love God and who want to love God more.
So come, you who have much faith and you who have little,
You who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time or ever before,
You who have tried to follow and you who have failed.
Come, not because the Church invites you;
It is Christ who invites you to be known and fed here.*

Reconstructing Kauai's Only Pipe Organ

In 1925, Mrs. S. W. Wilcox generously donated an Austin Pipe Organ to Kaua'i's first Episcopal mission, All Saints'. It was the first pipe organ on Kaua'i. Ninety years later, the historic instrument is still Kaua'i's only pipe organ.

As a cathedral for the arts on Kaua'i, the pipe organ is an integral and beloved part of the Church's worship services and community music outreach program. Unfortunately, age and the tropical environment took their toll on this beautiful and historic instrument. The pipe organ's various wood, metal, and leather parts deteriorated. Routine maintenance and minor repairs were unable to stop the inevitable finale of the current pipe organ's lifespan. In February 2016, the pipe organ was decommissioned.

In January 2016, All Saints' launched a capital campaign to reconstruct the pipe organ. A budget of $285,000 has been established to reconstruct the organ and to make some enhancements to the sanctuary and the adjoining spaces to support the pipe organ's functionality and the future vision of the music program. The target completion of the project is by November, 2019.

All Saints' is grateful to be working with Rosales Pipe Organ Services, Inc. of Los Angeles, California. Manuel Rosales and his team bring an impressive background to this extraordinary project. Manuel has restored organs throughout the United States and is a leader in the preservation of historic organs; he is considered by his colleagues to be one of the best in the industry. Rosales Pipe Organ's signature project is the world-renowned organ at the Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles. Manuel's vision is to design and build an exceptional and one-of-a-kind custom organ that includes native Hawaiian instrumentation and 'Ōlelo Hawaii nomenclature. Manuel has taken a deep interest in the project because of the historical and cultural implications of rebuilding Kaua'i's only pipe organ.

Upon completion of the project, the organ and renewed church interior will be an ideal setting for worship and music education, outreach through community concerts, and a sacred gathering space for the people of Kaua'i.
